Critical: N	Required Response Indicator Description: 5-No response required

Notice Text:

The following Tariff Working Group revised proposal related to the Carlton penalties, System Management Service (SMS), and scheduling tolerances and penalties is a result of numerous tariff working group and individual customer discussions. Changes made after the Tariff Working Group Meeting held August 25, 2020, include the following:

- 1) Increase of the minimum SMS availability for scheduled volumes below MDQ from 50% to 75% when a SOL has been called;
- 2) Increase of the minimum SMS availability for scheduled volumes below MDQ from 25% to 50% on a Critical Day; and
- 3) Increase of the minimum SMS availability for scheduled volumes above actual daily delivered quantities from 50% to 75% when a SUL has been called.

Attached for your review are the Tariff Working Group revised proposal, including a summary document describing the proposed changes, and the associated tariff sheets (redlined). These documents are located on the rate proceeding documents webpage on Northern's website.

Northern is proposing the following schedule to finalize and implement tariff changes, which takes into account customer requests related to supply planning and Northern's required computer system modifications.

Proposed Schedule for Implementation

September 24, 2020	Customer comments due
October 1, 2020	FERC tariff filing
October 31, 2020	FERC approval received
November 1, 2020	Effective date of Carlton penalty waiver ability
January 1, 2021	Effective date of DDVC indexed penalties
November 1, 2021	Effective date for remaining SMS and tolerance changes for SOL, Critical Days and SUL

Please review these documents and provide any comments to either Laura Demman, Kirk Lavengood or Kent Miller through close of business on September 24, 2020.

Thank you for your consideration of these tariff changes. Northern looks forward to implementing these service changes and continuing to provide industry-leading reliability and service.
